Missing banker found hanging

Free Press Staff Reporter
KUALA LUMPUR, Sunday.
THE body of Che Maarof bin Haji Zakariah, well-known Kuala Lumpur lawyer and bank director, who was reported missing from Friday morning, was found by a police search party this morning, hanging from a tree in a patch of jungle 13 miles from Kuala Lumpur.
 The discovery concluded a continuous search for the missing man which began when a forest ranger found his car abandoned in a cart track off the Kuala Lumpur-Bentong road on Friday morning.

60 MILLION YEN FIRE DAMAGE

SEVENTY buildings, including the City Hall and the Chamber of Commerce, were destroyed in Miyazaki city, in southeastern Kyushu early yesterday by a wind-anned three-hour fire in the business district.
 About 1000 persons are homeless and the damage is estimated at 60,000,000 yen. The blaze started

It was established later that he had left his house on Thursday morning saying that he was going to Seremban to visit his mother and it was feared at first that he had been kidnapped on the way.
 This morning's discovery was made a short distance away from where the car was found on Friday.
 Police search parties had passed and re-passed the area several times.
 The deceased's spectacles, watch and clothes were found undisturbed when the body was examined.
 The funeral took place this evening at the Ampang Road Mohammedan cemetery.
 Che Maarof was 43 years of age. He entered the Malay Administrative Service in the Federated Malay States in 1924. Later he studied for the Bar in the United Kingdom, returning to Malaya after passing his Bar final in the Inner Temple in 1938.
 He retired a few months after the liberation and went into private practice last year.
 Early this year, he became managing director of the Malay National Bank.
