Twenty in jail clash

KUALA LUMPUR, June 18.—About 20 prisoners in the Pudu Jail here were involved in a clash yesterday evening as they were being taken back to their cells.

Two were taken to the General Hospital with head injuries

At the hospital this evening one of the injured said: "I do not know the real cause of the trouble in which I was involved. Twenty were involved in the fight."

Order was restored by prison guards.

Prison officials had nothing to say when asked about the clash
