85 years of growth

From family store to group of companies

The year is 1899. The place: Federal Stores in High Street, Kuala Lumpur. The men: The Chua Brothers from Malacca. Chua Cheng Tuan and Chua Cheng Bok. The nature of their business: the selling of cycles and carriages. It was the beginning . . .

The year is 1984. Cycle and Carriage is now a quoted company, after 85 years of steady growth. It is today a major motor vehicle distributor, with the exclusive franchise for both Mercedes-Benz and Mitsubishi.

Cycle and Carriage is also the holding company for a diverse range of operations. Its business interests include Property, Finance, Trade, Manufacturing and Hotels.

Much has changed since 1899. And, over the years, Cycle and Carriage has always adapted to meet new challenges and changing conditions. Vision and long-term planning have made Cycle and Carriage what it is today. And this strategy will help us to continually expand as we advance towards a still greater future.

On this occasion, the 85th Anniversary of Cycle and Carriage, we'd like to extend our thanks to our loyal customers who purchase and promote our products by their use. Also to our dealers, stockists and everyone else who has in one way or another contributed to the success of our Group.
