Map - plan of Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, 1969

Goodness - how this city has changed! KL is one of many developing cities that has changed almost beyond recognition over the last 50 years and although the basic plan of the city as seen here is still recognisable the level of reconstruction and growth is amazing. There's lots to see here - old street names, old buildings and institutions and, very late for 1969, even the site of the old Sultan Street railway station just below Jalan Pudu. Other changes include the relocation of the original Selangor Turf Club and race course close to where now stand the Petronas Towers.
